

Rewired: Connecting to your real self

Jan. 10 & Jan. 15, 2020

Teacher: Roger Thompson

I Have a New Name

At my core the Father has given me:

- A NEW NAME (Justification)
- A new nature
- A new strength
- A new motivation

Something my Dad taught me I'll never forget.

Something my Dad couldn't give me that I've always missed. . .

1) THE FATHER HAS DECLARED ME JUSTIFIED.

Romans 5:1 Therefore, since we have been JUSTIFIED by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:8-11 ... God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been JUSTIFIED by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Who I was: weak/ ungodly/ still a sinner/ enemy

What God did: love/ Christ died/ blood

Who I am now: justified/ saved from wrath/ reconciled

What God did: love/ Christ died/ blood

Who I am now: justified/ saved from wrath/ reconciled

I now have PEACE WITH GOD.

My position and identity has been changed forever:

2) THE FATHER HAS RECONCILED OUR RELATIONSHIP.

My Father took a broken relationship and made it whole. (5:10)

My Father is the initiator: I am the recipient. (5:8)

My Father has completed everything necessary. (5:10b)

My reconciled relationship with my Father gives me joy every day.

WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES THIS MAKE?

- I can stop looking back to my experience to determine my position with God.
- I can stop trying to reinstate myself into God's favor after I have sinned.

Discussion Questions:

As a child, what defined my identity?

As an adult, what has defined my identity?

What truth from this teaching will help me align my identity with my new name?
