Feb. 5 & 10, 2021 “The Christian Mind”

Commandment #1: You shall have no other gods before me.

The foundation of a biblical worldview: The God of the Bible IS.

“There is nothing in our experience, however trivial, worldly, or even evil, which cannot be thought about Christianly.” Harry Blamires, The Christian Mind

Marks of the Christian Mind

1) An eternal perspective:

Human life and human history are held in the hands of God.

- Acts 17:26-27

2) Awareness of Evil:

The human heart, and the universe itself, is a battlefield

- Eph. 6:12

3) Absolute truth:

Truth is established and revealed by God, not manufactured or discovered within nature.

- John 17:17

4) Acceptance of authority:

We serve a King who rules for our good, and commands obedience.

- Psalm 99:1

5) Concern for the person:

Loving our neighbor is inseparable from true spirituality.

- Leviticus 19:18

6) The Larger Story:

God is God, and I am not.

- Isaiah 55:8-9

Discussion questions:

- 1) Which of these 6 Marks have I needed most in the past year?
- 2) Since everything life can be considered from a Christian worldview, what slice of my life (family/ marriage/ finance/ physical/ emotional/ governmental) do I need to think about more “Christianly?”
- 3) Where do you currently see the greatest clash between the secular and Christian world views?
