The study of scripture is the discovery of how the moral law of God inevitably proves itself to be true.

- This is the basis of a comprehensive Biblical Worldview.

As Christians, grace frees us from the law as an indictment (justification), but pulls us toward the heart of God so that His law becomes our heart's desire (sanctification). (Ezek. 36:26-27)

Why study the 10 Commandments?

- 1) Ignorance:
- 2) Reverence:
- 3) Revelation:

Who is the Law-giver?

- Exodus 20:1-2

Commandment #1: You shall have no other gods before Me (Ex. 20:3)

- Transcendent:
- Immanent:
- Omniscient:
- Sovereign
- Good:

The moral law of God has practical, daily implications

Deut. 6:1-3

- Fear:
- Generational:
- Promise & hope:

Table discussion: Have someone read the Psalm. Examine the text:

- 1) What kind of anguish, pressure or worry was on David's heart?
- 2) How does David's Worldview of the one, true God shape his thinking and control his emotions?
- 3) How can the one, true God anchor me in today's troubles?

Psalm 3: A Psalm of David when he fled from Absalom his son.

O LORD, how many are my foes!

Many are rising against me;

² many are saying of my soul,

"There is no salvation for him in God." Selah^[a]

³ But you, O LORD, are a shield about me,
my glory, and the lifter of my head.

⁴ I cried aloud to the LORD,
and he answered me from his holy hill. Selah

⁵ I lay down and slept;
I woke again, for the LORD sustained me.

⁶ I will not be afraid of many thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around.

⁷ Arise, O LORD!
Save me, O my God!

For you strike all my enemies on the cheek;
you break the teeth of the wicked.

⁸ Salvation belongs to the LORD;
your blessing be on your people!
